New to the market, Head First is a nicely equipped 2003 Beneteau Oceanis 473 sailboat that is well maintained. This is a must see 2 cabin, 2 head boat that was purchased new by the current owner and has always been in fresh water. This performance cruiser was designed by Groupe Finot and was awarded Cruising World Magazine's Boat of the Year! The design is perfect for blue water and coastal sailing. Her wide beam helps with stability and provides room for a large comfortable interior. There is a huge owners suite forward with en-suite head. With twin helms the helmsman can steer the boat from the preferred side. The cockpit is massive and provides easy access to the foredeck. In the salon the dark wood interior is immaculate and the cabin layout is very spacious. The galley has a double SS sink, microwave, three burner stove, oven and refrigerator. The u-shaped settee and table converts to a double bed. Access to large storage locker from galley. Key features In mast furling mainsail.
